ACCREDITATION ELIGIBILITY

The Festival accredits only the director of each film (or directors in the case of works with more than one director). Additional creative personnel (e.g. producer, editor, actors) will be accredited on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the Festival.

Accredited directors will receive a Festival Badge and 4 complimentary tickets to their film screening. Co-directors will receive 6 tickets and must share these tickets. Cast and crew attending the Festival will not receive any additional complimentary tickets.

PICK-UP

Badges and hospitality packets are available to be picked up beginning Friday, July 20 at Asia Society (725 Park Avenue at 70th Street) during the following hours:

JULY 20	5:30PM-8:00PM
JULY 21-22	11:00AM-8:00PM
JULY 23-24	NO PICK-UPS
JULY 25-27	6:00PM-9:00PM
JULY 28	11:00AM-5:00PM

Please note there will be no INDUSTRY/FILMMAKER check-in during Opening Night.

ACCREDITATION BENEFITS

- Each accredited guest will receive a Festival Badge and Hospitality Packet. The badge is non-transferable.
- The Festival Badge will allow you access on a space-available basis to all regular programs excluding Opening, Centerpiece and Closing Night screenings. One ticket per program can be obtained at the AAIFF Box Office up to one hour prior to the screening.
- All Festival receptions and parties are open to accredited guests pending availability. RSVP is required for Opening and Closing Night Galas. We will notify you if you need to RSVP for other receptions and events.
- Your Badge will gain access to the Hospitality Lounge on the 8th Floor, where you can relax, meet fellow guests and filmmakers, and enjoy wireless internet connection.
- If a film is in a Rush Only situation, you may wait in the rush line and receive free admission if there are tickets available. Rush lines form an hour before show time. First come, first served. Admission pending availability.
